

Maureen Flynn, Changing Our World:

As a leader of the Corporate Social Engagement practice at Changing Our World, Maureen has nearly 15 years of experience establishing and implementing effective partnerships between corporations and nonprofits. Maureen brings a strong background in program design, employee engagement, grantmaking and cause marketing to her position at Changing Our World and her client experience represents an array of sectors and industries, including organizations such as Avon, BNY Mellon, ConAgra Foods, MillerCoors, Philips, Phillips 66, TD Ameritrade and Xylem. Prior to joining Changing Our World, Maureen served as the associate specialist of corporate social responsibility for Canon U.S.A. Inc. In this role, Maureen was responsible for managing Canon's nonprofit partnerships with organizations such as the Yellowstone Park Foundation and the National Environmental Education Foundation. Before joining Canon, Maureen worked for Toshiba America Foundation where she made funding recommendations and managed grant projects that support mathematics and science education in K-12 classrooms nationwide. Maureen earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in communications from the State University of New York at Oswego. She currently serves as a member of the Oswego Alumni Association's board of directors and as a member of the Leadership Council for the Women's Fund of Central New York.